Services

Reiki

Reiki is a non-invasive, powerful method of healing. Reiki energy, (often described as “universal life energy” or “spiritual energy”) is accessed during a treatment, it enhances the body’s natural healing ability and promotes wellbeing.

I practice the Usui method which is ‘hands on’. You remain ‘fully clothed’ while I lightly place my hands above the main area of discomfort or blockages.

I often incorporate crystals within my Reiki sessions. The unique vibrational properties of individual crystals enhances mind, body and spiritual wellbeing.

Pellowah

An Angelic word for “radical shift in consciousness”, Pellowah connects all 12 strands of DNA ready for activation; unblocks and realigns all meridians in the body giving a feeling of connection and wellbeing. Pellowah builds on the positives. It expands your level of consciousness, helping you to become more objective and less involved in other people’s lives.

It gives you a new perspective allowing you to make better choices.

Other forms of healing produce positive feelings that generally last up to a week. Pellowah provides a feeling of wellbeing that seems to last and will become stronger as time goes by. This is because the healing happens from the inside out. The energy changes YOU and the “new you” becomes the normal. To put it another way, Pellowah activates you so you generate or create the light from within.

Liquid Crystal Therapy

This session is a combination of Reiki and Liquid Crystal Oracle Cards; it is very calming and helps clear blockages and lower energies.

The Liquid Crystals are organic, natural and holistic and perfect for the whole family; they work on the Spiritual, Mental and Emotional to create balance.

Each Crystal has its unique Deva. By capturing its energetic healing qualities and replicating its internal geometry as a liquid it can be safely taken into the body for you to receive healing energy.

During the session a particular crystal will present itself, which will then be given as a 21-day remedy.

Pets and Children

Reiki, Pellowah and Liquid Crystal Therapy modalities work very well with both pets and children.

Distance Healings

Distance Healings are available and are as powerful, if not more than in person healings.

Oracle Card Readings

I also offer Oracle Card Readings - an enlightening way to find clarity and understanding of your life circumstances and how to move forward in the future.

I connect with my Angels and Guides to give clear and accurate readings.

A combined healing and reading session is available.

Teaching

I am a qualified Pellowah teacher/trainer, which allows me to teach Pellowah Healing Technique Level 1 & 2.

The Level 1 course enables you to become a practitioner while Level 2 is for your own spiritual growth.

These workshops are each 1-day and will be held throughout the year.

As the year progresses more courses and workshops will be offered. Dates and costs will be listed on my facebook page as they come up.

Angel Parties

I am also available for Angel Parties - an enlightening and fun way to connect with friends. Please contact me for more details.
